Highland Park put one over on Fairmount Friday at the Bines. Armory, nosing the latter out in a flercely contested game, 15 to 14.

McGill and Church Hill Athletic Club are having it nip and tuck in the Amateur Loague. They meet for the final game next Saturday night, and that game desides "who's who."

Barton Heights quint met and defeated some second-string men of the Howitzers when their opponents in Class D forfeited to them last night. It was an exciting game, and some marvelous shots were made by both five. Score: Barton Heights, 36; Howitzers Scrubs, 16.

The quint from Williamsburg will be seen in action against the Artillerymen in their armory next Saturday, this being the first outside toam on the Howitzers' schedule, From reports, William and Mary have a fast team, nearly all of last year's players returning to college.

On the other hand, the Howitzers have a clean slate, and when the game starts a lively setto is expected.

The Young Women's Christian Association advanced team gave the Westhampton College girls a severe trouncing in a fast game played in the former's gymnasium Friday evening.

The association girls gave a brilliant exhibit of pass work that rolled up the score of $2 to 5.

Alles Chesmond's play at side centre for the association was conspicuously good. There was a large crowd of rooters for both side, and the cheering was continuous. This is the first of a series of games to be played at the Young Women's Christian Association, all of which will be open to the public. Line-up:

NEW YORK. December 12.—Hannes Kolchmainen, wearing the colors of the Irish-American Athletic Club, won the national senior cross-country run of the Amateur Athletic Union to-day over the six-mile course in 33.36, a new record for the Van Cortlandt course. Kolchmainen led all the way, whining by about sixty yards from Arthur J. Fogel, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, who finished thirty yards ahead of his club mate. Thomas Barden, Fogel's time was 33.49.

The team prize was won by the Irish-American Athletic Club with sixteen points. The New York Athletic Club, Philadelphia, third. There were twenty-two starters.
